Division II Committee Service –

How to Make It Yours!
DIVISION II COMMITTEES

Academic Requirements Committee
Reviews the division’s academic standards and recommends policy and legislation regarding initial eligibility, progress-toward-degree and transfer requirements.

Championships Committee
Primary oversight group responsible for administering policies and procedures surrounding the division’s 25 championships. All Division II sport committees report directly to the Championships Committee.

Committee for Legislative Relief
Serves as the final decision-making body for any waiver requests in situations in which no other committee, subcommittee or conference has the authority to act.

Committee on Infractions
The division's primary steward of the enforcement process meets as needed to participate in hearings involving member institutions that have been alleged to have violated NCAA legislation.

Infractions Appeals Committee
Meets as needed to hear and act on an institution’s or involved individuals’ appeal of the conclusions and penalties of major violations levied by the Committee on Infractions.

Legislation Committee
Determines interpretations of all Division II-specific legislation and incorporates new legislation and interpretations in the NCAA Manual.

Management Council
Reports directly to the Presidents Council and is charged with recommending administrative policy and regulations that govern the division.

Membership Committee
Reviews and considers issues pertaining to the Division II membership requirements and membership compliance issues.

Nominating Committee
Reviews nominations for vacancies on all Division II-specific committees, including men’s and women’s sport committees, and for the Division II positions on committees functioning in an Association-wide or multi-divisional capacity.

Planning and Finance Committee
Reviews budgetary recommendations related to the annual Division II budget and advises both the Division II Presidents Council and Management Council regarding the division’s financial affairs. Also oversees development and implementation of the division’s strategic plan.

Presidents Council
Division II’s highest governance body. Its members are charged with setting the strategic direction for the division in all areas, including its financial affairs and championships administration.

Sport Committees
Division II sport committees conduct their respective Division II championship and develop policies and procedures to administer the championship in an efficient and orderly manner. Sport committee members also chair regional advisory committees (RACs), oversee selections to national championships and serve as the NCAA representative during preliminary-round competition and championship finals.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee
Serves as the primary governance arm representing student-athlete interests in Division II affairs.

Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee
Reviews and discusses issues regarding student-athlete reinstatement and accordingly takes legislative action or directs staff to make recommendations to the Management Council.
Congratulations on your NCAA committee appointment!

You join an army of nearly 300 presidents, athletics administrators, conference commissioners, faculty athletics representatives and student-athletes who make Division II operate effectively. As a volunteer, member-led Association, the NCAA relies on committees to accomplish its mission, which is to provide thousands of student-athletes an experience that will benefit them for the rest of their lives. You are part of that process.

The resources in this booklet will help you navigate the journey. But first of all, you should realize and appreciate the following:

1. Be proud of your appointment. Your skills and accomplishments have earned you this recognition, and those responsible for approving your appointment obviously believe in your commitment to Division II.

2. The Division II governance process truly is special. Committee members routinely set aside their personal agendas for the collective good. Division II enjoys its many unique characteristics and attributes largely because the membership – via the governance structure – has created, protected and enhanced them over time.

3. Embrace the personal and professional development that committee service affords through networking with peers. Committee alumni invariably say the lasting relationships they formed with people all across the country through their committee service is among the most special aspects of working in college athletics – and those relationships often play a role in career advancement. Take advantage of the opportunity!

You will be hearing from your committee liaison at the NCAA national office in the coming weeks with more details about how to succeed in your appointed role.

First, here are some tips to get you started:

- Peruse the following pages for general information about the NCAA, and about Division II in particular.

- If you are not already familiar with your committee, learn about its purpose and function via the NCAA website (www.NCAA.org/governance/committees?division=d2). Review recent agendas and reports to be up to speed on the issues your committee addresses.

- Be prepared for in-person meetings and teleconferences. Your national office staff liaisons work diligently to provide committee members with the materials they need to inform decision-making. Be sure to review these in advance.

Thank you for your willingness to serve and to be a leader in Division II. Our division would not be the jewel it is today without the commitment, leadership and service we receive from hundreds of people like you. We truly appreciate your help.

HOW THE NCAA WORKS:

Association-Wide

Each division governs its day-to-day needs, but on broad issues that affect college athletics as a whole, the NCAA Board of Governors and a collection of committees set the course for the Association.

While each NCAA division is empowered with setting its own rules and operating guidelines, some topics rise to a level affecting college sports as a whole and need a coordinated voice to guide the Association in a unified direction. For those situations, a group of committees comprising representatives from all three divisions make recommendations that can impact the entire Association – whether a small, private Division III school or a national champion Football Bowl Subdivision program – equally.

The Association-wide committees work collaboratively with each division’s governance bodies to recommend legislation. These committees explore issues impacting sports rules changes, the health and safety of student-athletes or opportunities for women and minority groups in college sports, and recommend changes to the appropriate legislative groups.

The NCAA Board of Governors, the highest-ranking committee in the Association, can implement policies by which all three divisions must abide. When the NCAA stopped allowing schools to host championships if their state governments displayed the Confederate flag, it was through a Board of Governors policy change.

Changes in legislation, however, require each division to take action. The Association-wide groups propose changes to the committees in each division, which then debate and vote on the proposals through their legislative processes.

Representatives from all three divisions sit on these Association-wide committees, which make recommendations on issues that impact the entire NCAA.
The Board of Governors is the highest governance body in the NCAA and focuses on strategic discussions that impact the Association as a whole. The committee of 16 voting members has the following responsibilities:

- Provides final approval and oversight of the NCAA’s budget.
- Employs the NCAA president.
- Provides strategic planning for the Association as a whole.
- Acts on behalf of the Association by adopting and implementing policies to resolve core issues and other Association-wide matters.
- Initiates and settles litigation.
- Convenes the NCAA Convention each year.

VOTING BOARD MEMBERS

8 presidents from Division I Football Bowl Subdivision
2 presidents from Division I Football Championship Subdivision
2 presidents from Division I (schools without football)
2 presidents from Division II
2 presidents from Division III

EX OFFICIO

Chairs of DI Council, DI Management Council and DII Management Council
NCAA president

Each division sets rules and policies specific to its members’ needs but looks to the Board of Governors for guidance on the overall strategy of the Association.

DIVISION I BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DIVISION II PRESIDENTS COUNCIL

DIVISION III PRESIDENTS COUNCIL

DIVISION I COUNCIL

DIVISION II MANAGEMENT COUNCIL

DIVISION III MANAGEMENT COUNCIL

Neither the Association-wide committees nor the Board of Governors has authority to enact legislation directly. But they can influence and provide guidance by recommending legislation to each division, where it can be reviewed in the divisions’ legislative processes.

NCAA committees study and recommend playing rules changes for sports across all three divisions. Their recommendations are reviewed by the NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel, which makes final decisions on the changes. Some sports, such as golf, fencing and gymnastics, use rules of international or national governing bodies with a few NCAA modifications approved by PROP.

Playing Rules Oversight Panel

Makes final approvals of playing rules recommendations. Composed of six representatives from Division I, three from Division II and three from Division III.

12 members:
What is Division II?

Division II is a collection of more than 300 colleges and universities that support the educational mission of college athletics by fostering a balanced and inclusive approach in which student-athletes learn and develop through their desired academic pursuits, in civic engagement with their communities and in athletics competition.

The Division II experience not only provides student-athletes the opportunity to earn scholarships based on their academic, athletic and leadership abilities, but it also offers the best championships-participant ratio among the NCAA’s three divisions, and it prioritizes preparation for life beyond graduation. Division II gives student-athletes the unique opportunity to compete in the classroom, on the field, in their career, for their causes, and on their terms.

The NCAA’s three-division structure was created in 1973 in order to give member institutions a more varied menu from which to classify their athletics programs. Division II gave those programs that wanted to keep their athletics budgets in good proportion to the total institutional budget a place to compete.

The Distinguishing Dozen

12 characteristics that set DII apart

1. Graduation rates. The Division II student-athlete graduation rate is consistently higher than that of the total student body. Division II also features a high number of first-generation college students, thus increasing the access to education.

2. Academic emphasis. Division II’s regionalization philosophy in scheduling limits missed class time for student-athletes.

3. Athletics scholarships. The partial athletics scholarship model rewards athletic ability while allowing student-athletes to earn other sources of financial aid. A recent study on the financial impact of the partial-scholarship model found that, in general, scholarship student-athletes benefit institutions’ overall academic profile, and the partial-aid model generates revenue for the school.

4. Balanced bottom line. The median expense for Division II athletics departments with football is roughly $6 million, while that figure is about $15 million for Division I Football Championship Subdivision programs and about $64 million for programs in the Division I Football Bowl Subdivision.

 ANY RESPONSE TO “WHAT IS DIVISION II?” SHOULD EMPHASIZE:

- The commitment to academic success …
- The ability to award athletics scholarships …
- The unparalleled access to NCAA championships, and …
- The balanced approach that allows student-athletes to “Make It Yours” – to experience all the campus and surrounding community have to offer.
Make It Yours

In 2014-15, the division launched a brand enhancement under the slogan “Make It Yours,” a student-athlete-driven selection that personalized the Division II experience and provided a way to extend the division’s reach. “Make It Yours” strengthens awareness among external audiences by clearly communicating the experience Division II schools create for student-athletes. It also brings the experience to life in a way that resonates with primary external audiences and also reinforces a sense of pride with internal stakeholders.

Favorable admission rates. Division II membership is split almost evenly between public and private institutions. On average, Division II schools have the highest admission rate (70 percent, versus 62-63 percent in the other two divisions).

Community engagement. Through student-athlete leadership, Division II has enjoyed long-term and successful partnerships with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Team IMPACT and military groups. In addition, Division II conducts community engagement activities at all championships final sites.

Positive game environment. Division II members pledge to conduct athletics contests in a family-friendly environment that is civil and entertaining.

Unique geographical footprint. Division II is the only NCAA division with schools in Alaska (Anchorage and Fairbanks), Puerto Rico (Bayamon, Mayaguez and Rio Piedras) and Canada (Simon Fraser).

National championship opportunities. Division II features unparalleled opportunity for student-athletes to advance to national championship competition as a result of the division’s generous championship access ratios (the highest among the three NCAA divisions).

National Championships Festivals. Division II is the only NCAA division that conducts “National Championships Festivals,” Olympic-style events in which a number of national championships are held at a single site during a period of several days.

Make It Yours. This student-athlete-driven brand enhancement strengthens awareness among external audiences by clearly communicating the experience Division II schools create for student-athletes.

Diversity and inclusion. Matching grants encourage access, recruitment, selection, and the long-term success of ethnic minorities and women in administration and coaching.

What is it that Division II is “making yours”?

• It’s making graduation a priority.
• It’s about earning scholarship dollars for your athletic ability and competing for national championships.
• It’s making athletics participation truly part of the college experience rather than just one aspect of it.
• It’s making lifelong friends at a campus whose size affords a more intimate setting.
• It’s the university president seeing students on campus and being able to call them by name and ask how things are going.
• It’s making the academic experience more personal.
• It’s about professors, coaches and staff caring for you as a student.
• It’s about an experience in which you can be an active participant.
• It’s about a campus that is tight-knit enough to respond to individual student needs.
• It’s about having coaches who help athletes develop their resumes as much as their athletic skills.
• It’s about a custom-fit approach to athletics and education rather than a one-size-fits-all.
HOW THE NCAA WORKS:

Division II

Division II employs a democratic style of governance in which all member schools vote on and hold themselves accountable to various policies and procedures. Division II has abided by its “One Institution, One Vote” system since the division was established in 1973.

Bylaws governing Division II are adopted through a membership-driven legislative process that culminates annually in a voting session during the NCAA Convention in January. That process includes input from presidents, athletics administrators and staff, coaches, faculty representatives, conference personnel and student-athletes from Division II institutions and conferences who volunteer to serve on dozens of NCAA committees to conduct the division’s day-to-day business and establish strategic direction for the future.

Division II’s vast committee structure oversees everything from strategic planning and budget allocations to championships administration and marketing/communications.

Many of these regulations – and proposals to change existing policies – develop within the committee governance structure throughout the year, while other legislative proposals are submitted by member institutions and conferences.

All of these bylaws and regulations are published annually in the NCAA Division II Manual, which is the division’s official governing rulebook.

LEGISLATIVE CALENDAR

- JULY 15: Have an idea? Legislative proposals submitted by members are due to the national office.
- AUG. 15: All those proposed pieces of legislation are published on NCAA.org in a publication commonly known as POPL, so schools can review them and begin developing opinions.
- SEPT. 1: Deadline for Presidents Council to sponsor legislation to be voted on at the NCAA Convention.
- SEPT. 15: Any final revisions to membership-sponsored proposals are due.

Some legislation is proposed by the members themselves. In order to submit a proposal, 15 active Division II schools or two conferences must be sponsors. Those proposals go directly to the NCAA Convention for a vote, but the Division II committees also discuss and take a position on those ideas.
The top leadership group in Division II, it is composed of college presidents and chancellors and establishes and directs general policy.

- Implements policies adopted by the NCAA Board of Governors.
- Establishes a strategic plan for Division II.
- Sponsors legislative proposals from the governance structure to be considered by members at the NCAA Convention.
- Can adopt administrative bylaws and regulations without approval of members, but sometimes seeks member support for these changes.
- Develops and approves the Division II budget.
- Approves regulations for Division II championships.
- Makes final decisions on waiver requests in which no waiver is needed.
- Reviews academic standards and makes recommendations about initial and ongoing eligibility.
- Reviews and acts on appeals of infraction cases.
- Has day-to-day knowledge of athletics operations.

Composition based on regional membership numbers. Currently, 16 presidents and chancellors:

- 6 members:
  - 5 from each of 24 voting conferences; 1 from an independent school; 2 at-large positions to enhance diversity; 2 student-athletes

- 5 members:
  - 4 athletic directors
  - 4 student-athletes
  - 1 conference commissioner
  - 2 student-athletes

The Management Council reviews each proposal and chooses to recommend or not recommend it before forwarding to the Presidents Council.

Robert’s Rules of Order

NCAA committees use “Robert’s Rules of Order” when making decisions. Here’s a cheat sheet if you’re not already familiar with that format.

THERE ARE 5 GENERAL TYPES OF MOTIONS

1 MAIN MOTIONS
These introduce subjects for consideration. They cannot be made when another motion is before the assembly. They yield to privileged, subsidiary and incidental motions. For example: “I move that we purchase ...”

2 SUBSIDIARY MOTIONS
These change or affect how the main motion is handled. (They are voted on before the main motion.) For example: “I move to amend the motion by striking out ...”

3 PRIVILEGED MOTIONS
These concern special or important matters not related to pending business. In general, they are considered before other types of motions. For example: “I move we adjourn.”

4 INCIDENTAL MOTIONS
These are questions of procedure that arise out of other motions. They must be considered before the other motion. For example: “I move to suspend the rules for the purpose of ...”

5 MOTIONS THAT BRING A QUESTION AGAIN BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY
These enable certain items to be reconsidered. In general, they are brought up when no business is pending. For example: “I move to reconsider ...”

SOME QUESTIONS RELATING TO MOTIONS

Is it in order? Your motion must relate to the business at hand and be presented at the appropriate time. It must not be obstructive, frivolous or against the bylaws.

May I interrupt the speaker? Some motions are so important that the speaker may be interrupted to make them. The original speaker regains the floor after the interruption has been attended to.

Do I need a second? Usually, yes. A second indicates that another member would like to consider your motion. It prevents spending time on a question that interests only one person.

Is it debatable? Parliamentary procedure guards the right to free and full debate on most motions. However, some subsidiary, privileged and incidental motions are not debatable.

Can it be amended? Some motions can be changed by striking out or inserting wording, or both. Amendments must relate to the subject as presented in the main motion.

What vote is needed? Most require only a majority vote (more than half the members present and voting). But, motions concerning the rights of the assembly or its members need a two-thirds vote to be adopted.

Can it be reconsidered? Some motions can be debated again and revoted to give members a chance to change their minds. The motion to reconsider must come from the winning side.

HOW DO I PRESENT MY MOTION?

Here’s what happens when you want a motion considered:

1 YOU OBTAIN THE FLOOR.
- Wait until the previous speaker is finished.
- Address the chair. Say, “Mr. (or Madam) Chairperson” or “Mr. (or Madam) President.”
- Give your name. The chair will recognize you by repeating it.

2 YOU MAKE YOUR MOTION.
- Speak clearly and concisely.
- State your motion affirmatively. Say, “I move that we do ...” instead of “I move that we do not ...”
- Stay on the subject and avoid personal attacks.

3 YOU WAIT FOR A SECOND.
- Another member will say, “I second the motion.”
- Or, the chair will call for a second.
- If there is no second, your motion will not be considered.

Motions made at the direction of a board or committee (of more than one person) do not require a second.

4 THE CHAIR STATES YOUR MOTION.
- The chair must say, “It is moved and seconded that we ...”
- After this happens, debate or voting can occur.
- Your motion is now “assembly property,” and you can’t change it without consent of the members.

5 YOU EXPAND ON YOUR MOTION.
- As the person who made the motion, you are allowed to speak first.
- Direct all comments to the chair.
- Keep to the time limit for speaking.
- You may speak again after all other speakers are finished.
- You may speak a third time by a motion to suspend the rules with a two-thirds vote.

6 THE CHAIR PUTS THE QUESTION.
- The chair asks, “Are you ready for the question?”
- If there is no more debate, or if a motion to stop debate is adopted, a vote is taken.
- The chair announces the results.
