

Information on ECAG Website

Although they are not part of the NCAA membership, by participating in the NCAA certification and approval process and benefiting from those opportunities, the individuals identified below are voluntarily submitting themselves and their organizations to NCAA legislation, guidelines and requirements:

- Nonscholastic basketball coaches;
- Basketball event/league operators;
- Scouting service operators in men's/women's basketball and football.

The ECAG website is the essential bulletin board of information for these individuals and they will be held accountable to all information posted on this site. Therefore, it is advisable that these individuals make themselves aware of the information posted AND are encouraged to frequent the site for changes that may occur.

Failure to adhere to these requirements will render the individual and/or their organization subject to the penalties outlined in the ECAG Adverse Actions document.

Related Legislation

Related Guidelines
Adverse Actions