INFORMATIONAL ITEMS.

1. Cross country championship broadcast. NCAA staff provided the Division III Championships Committee an update concerning a partnership with FloSports, specifically FloTrack, regarding a contract to broadcast the 2017 Divisions I, II and III Cross Country Championships. FloTrack will feature exclusive live and on-demand coverage of the Divisions I, II and III Cross Country Championships, as well as the Division I Great Lakes and West regionals. Access to the championship content will be available to FloTrack Pro subscribers for a monthly price of $19.99 or an annual price of $150. This subscription will include access to all FloTrack live broadcasts, video on-demand from all events, documentaries, technique videos and more. Staff also detailed the steps to inform the Division III membership, including schools selected to compete at the national championship, of the change in broadcast partner. Staff will review all feedback received following the championship events and provide a recap to the championships committee and sport committee.

2. Wrestling regional bid. The committee approved Wabash College to host the Central region of the 2018 NCAA Division III Wrestling Championship at Knowling Fieldhouse in Crawfordsville, Indiana.

3. Declining to compete. NCAA staff provided an update regarding the status of the declining to compete guidelines that will be followed should an institution decide to remove itself from any round of a championship. The guidelines provide staff with a framework to shape conversations should the circumstances arise.
