

TRANSPORTATION:

Operators are prohibited from providing air or ground transportation to and/or from an event/league for participants, their coaches or relatives. However, an operator may provide local transportation to participants between the activity site and the nearest airport, bus or train station provided that the same transportation is available to all attendees.