

A G E N D A

National Collegiate Athletic Association Football Data Task Force

Grant Ballroom A
Indianapolis, IN

February 26-27, 2018
8 a.m., Monday

1. Welcome and introduction. (Brian Hainline)
2. The importance of data to the sport of college football. (Bob Bowlsby)
3. Summary of changes to the 2017 football preseason. (Kris Richardson)
4. The NCAA Injury Surveillance Program and football. (Christy Collins and Erin Wasserman)
5. The NCAA-DoD CARE Consortium and football. (Tom McAllister)
6. Overview and structure of data review and key questions. (Hainline)
7. Injury and concussion rates: Preseason. (Steve Broglio and Collins)
8. Ivy League data. (Carolyn Campbell-McGovern)
9. Injury and concussion rates: In-season and Post-season. (Broglio and Wasserman)
10. CARE Head Impact Measurement data across seasons. (Stefan Duma, McCrae and Brian Stemper)
11. Comparative data: NCAA 1999-2001 v CARE 2014-2016. (McCrae)
12. Overview of all injuries in football. (Wasserman and Collins)
13. Special topics in football. (Wasserman)
14. Moderated discussion: Future health and safety issues in the sport of football. (Bowlsby and Hainline)
15. Closing comments. (Bowlsby)
16. Adjournment.