What's new for 2008

There are some new and exciting opportunities for Javelina football fans in 2008.

Chairback Seating

New chairback seating will be available in all of sections C and D.

These new blue Javelina chairback seats will offer season ticket holders more comfort than ever before at Javelina Stadium.

To purchase season tickets in sections C and D, you must be a Javelina Club Victory level donor (minimum $300 annual fund contribution) or higher. This includes the box seat area of sections C and D also.

Priority Season Ticket Parking

Season ticket holders now have the opportunity to purchase advanced reserved parking for the entire 2008 season for just $15. That's a savings of $10 over game day parking charges. If you are a member of the Javelina Club at the Victory level or above, your parking is free!

Javelina Gold Access Pass

The Javelina Gold Access Pass is good for admission to all yearly regular-season home contests in the sports of men's & women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball and men's & women's track and field.

On average, that covers 100 home events per year and the cost for football season ticket holders is just 50 cents per game!

The Javelina Gold Access Pass is just $50 for football season ticket holders and $100 for non-football season ticket holders.

That's not only the best bargain in college athletics, but it's a 50% savings for football season ticket holders over the cost of the pass for non-football season ticket holders.

Game Day

The smell of smoked brisket, the sound of the Pride of South Texas Marching Band playing Jalisco, the roar from Javelina Stadium after a touchdown...

These are some of the finer traditions in South Texas and they all involve a Texas A&M-Kingsville Javelina home football game.

Five times a year we gather to enjoy the sights and sounds of the only college football program in all of South Texas.

Tailgating before Javelina home games is a tradition, and how many college tailgates offer free food and beverages?

When you buy your season tickets you not only guarantee your seat for the entire season, but you also get to enjoy all the great events that surround a Saturday night Javelina home football game.

And don't forget Porky's Pack, the official Javelina youth club that has become another South Texas tradition.

Javelina football is about winning championships, creating memories and bringing families, classmates and fans from all of South Texas and the Rio Grande Valley together. Jalisco!
